

(B) prescribe the use of a particular examination or standards; or

(3) be construed to authorize or encourage Federal control over, involvement in, or regulation of private, religious, or home schools during the 5-year authorization of this Act or at any future time.

SEC. 217. DEFINITIONS.

For purposes of this title:

(1) The term "affective skills" means, but is not limited to meaning, the emotions, opinions, values, attitudes, beliefs, or sexual behavior of a student.

(2) The term "assessment system" means a system for measuring the cognitive skills and academic achievement of students that is based upon a set of curricular frameworks.

(3) The term "cognitive skills" means abilities to perform discrete academic tasks that demonstrate understanding of such basic subjects as reading, writing, mathematics, science, history, and geography, and that may be readily assessed, measured, and compared in objective and numerically quantifiable terms, but does not mean affective skills.

(4) The term "community organizations" means, but is not limited to meaning, fraternal or religious organizations, but does not mean organizations created for the purpose of, or having as their primary effect, the influencing of education or education policy.

(5) The term "curricular framework" means a specific, detailed description, in a particular subject matter area, of the knowledge and cognitive skills children should acquire at each grade level.

(6) The term "legitimate educational interest" means an interest in a student's cognitive skills and academic progress, but does not mean an interest in a student's affective skills, psychology, family, or other nonacademic matter.

(7) The term "Pacific outlying area" means American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Republic of Palau (until such time as the compact of Free Association is ratified).

(8) The term "private school" means non-public or religious education.

(9) The term "school" means public, private, or religious education.

(10) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Education.

(11) The term "State" means each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(12) The terms "State educational agency" and "local educational agency" have the meaning given such terms in section 1471 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

SEC. 218. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

So the amendment in the nature of a substitute was not agreed to.

After some further time,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DURBIN, assumed the Chair.

When Mrs. CLAYTON, Chairman, pursuant to House Resolution 274, reported the bill back to the House with an amendment adopted by the Committee.

The previous question having been ordered by said resolution.

Mr. LINDER demanded a separate vote on the amendment on page 75, line 21 [the GOODLING amendment].

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to the following amendment on which a separate vote had been demanded?

Page 75, after line 21, insert the following (and redesignate the subsequent subsections accordingly):

(m) PROHIBITION ON FEDERAL MANDATES, DIRECTION, AND CONTROL.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize an officer or employee of the Federal Government to mandate, direct, or control a State, local educational agency, or school's curriculum, program of instruction, or allocation of State and local resources.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. DURBIN, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. LINDER demanded a recorded vote on agreeing to said amendment, which demand was supported by one-fifth of a quorum, so a recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.
